

23rd SET Youth Musician Competition

History:

The SET Youth Musician Competition was created in 1997 by the College of Music, Mahidol University and the Stock Exchange of Thailand (2004). The Stock Exchange of Thailand believes that the competition benefits young musicians in Thailand by encouraging them to explore their inner musical creativity and artistry. Contestants can perform in any musical style, using any kind of non-electronic musical instrument or voice. It is regarded as the most open contest in the country, and the judge focus on pure musical expression as basis for the competition results.

Music Instruments: only acoustic instruments, strictly no electronic instruments

Thai Instruments: Alto xylophone, Dulcimer, Khong Wong Lek, Pong Lang, Chakhe, Voice, etc.

Western Instruments: Flute, Acoustic Guitar, Drum, Trumpet, Cello, Violin, Viola, Voice, etc.

Other Instruments: Guzheng, Traditional Instruments, etc.
