

Admission/Audition Requirements
Doctor of Philosophy in Music (PhD - Music)

Admission Requirements

Musicology Major

1. Submission of a formal written research proposal for the dissertation that includes the background and significance of the study, the objective(s) and benefits of the study, the scope and limitations of the topic, the literature review, the research methodology, and the bibliography (Submitted with applicant form)

2. Written exam: Knowledge about research in musicology, common knowledge of Western music and Thai music history and theory, analysis of music pertaining to music of various contexts. 120 Minutes, essay questions (about 1 page per each essay)

Study Sources:

Grout, D. J. Burkholder, J. P., & Palisca, C. V. (2006). A history of Western music. New York: W.W. Norton.